- Resettled refugees are a diverse group with wide-ranging language-learning needs that are not being met
- Day-to-day social contact alone is not sufficient to learn English
- English Language skills lead to more contact with other communities
- The most vulnerable refugees struggle to attend classes
- Accessible English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) classes are needed by all and not just those on work-related benefits
- Intensive, tailored courses are needed
- Higher-level and fast-track (ESOL) courses should be provided to those that need them for faster employment prospects
