

Media, Arts and Humanities

Guidelines on eligible uses of the internal MAH Research Budget

General Principles:

- i. The awarding of funds from the internal research budget is part of the remit of the Media, Arts and Humanities Research Committee. Applications will be considered and approved throughout the academic year, usually by the round-table or workshop at the conference in question cannot normally be given for attendance only.

- Publicity trips for books or other publications (where the sole or main purpose of the trip is publicity) The Research Office may be able to provide some administrative support in arranging book launches on campus
- Subscriptions to journals or magazines
- Membership of societies unless this cost is part of a conference registration fee condition of abstract submission.